

The comprehensive resource on domestic violence

2018 CONTRIBUTION FORM

YOUR HELP IS IMPORTANT

By becoming a member of or making a donation to the Ohio Domestic Violence Network (ODVN), you will help to ensure that ODVN's leadership role in domestic violence advocacy and education across the state will continue. It will allow us to continue to work with legislators for a more effective response to domestic violence; increase prevention and outreach programs in the state; provide training and technical assistance to over 5,000 professionals each year; develop and disseminate publications to support community responses to domestic violence; fund creative and innovative programs and trainings; and, be the touchpoint for all domestic violence agencies in Ohio.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

By becoming an individual or organizational member of ODVN, you will be entitled to the following benefits:

- Receive discounts on all ODVN sponsored training events;
- Access to domestic violence articles, books, and videos in our resource library;
- Network with other domestic violence service providers and professionals through ODVN committees and caucuses.
- Access to technical assistance on trauma informed approaches and other evidence based practices.
