The New Playbook: Standing Strong to Promote Non-Violence

From: Stephon Davis, Engaging Men Program Consultant

Re: The New Playbook: Standing Strong to Promote Non-Violence Conference for Veterans and Active Duty Military

Dates/Time: November 17 & 18, 2018

Registration and continental breakfast begin both days at 8:30 am. The conference begins at 9:00 am and ends on or before 4:45 pm both days. In order to receive a continuing professional education certificate of attendance you must attend the entire training, no exceptions.

Please plan to dress casually and comfortably. Bear in mind that temperatures in conference rooms are often unpredictable. Lunch will not be provided but there are plenty of fast food restaurants nearby within driving distance. There will be afternoon snacks available for participants and you are more than welcomed to bring your own lunch. A list of nearby eateries is attached to this confirmation as well as hotel accommodations.

Please bring a smart phone, tablet, or a laptop to complete electronic evaluations at the end of Day 1 and Day 2. Paper copies of evaluations will be available.

Training Location: Ohio Alliance to End Sexual Violence Training Room

6111 Oak Tree Blvd.
Independence, OH 44131

Directions/Parking Information:

You may find detailed driving directions from your home at www.googlemaps.com. If you need more detailed directions or do not have access to the internet, please contact me for assistance with more specific directions.

Free parking is available at the location.

Hotel Information: Please see attached hotel list provided by OAESV.

Reimbursements: ODVN has limited funding available on a first come first served basis to offset the costs of mileage, hotel rooms, and meals for Veterans and Military participants. If you are unable to attend, please let me know as soon as possible so your seat may be opened for another participant.
