ODVN Honors Elected Officials who Championed Increased Funding and Legislative Reforms for DV Survivors

Allison Linares Hoffman and Tobi Scudder are this year’s recipients of the ODNV Advocacy Award for their efforts to increase funding and support services for DV survivors. The award will be presented at the ODNV Annual Awards Luncheon on November 16, at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Edison, New Jersey.

Thank You for your generosity and support!

We are so grateful by raising $23,433 for our Lifeline of Hope. We could not have done it without you. Thank you for your compassion, your back or the feet. The staff and ODNV are both of us are very much appreciate your support.

Rebecca Cline Retires after 20 Years

Rebecca Cline, Founder of the Prevention Program at ODVN in OH, will retire after 20 years of service. Rebecca’s dedication to the organization and work in the field of DV prevention was celebrated by staff and colleagues at a retirement party on September 28th, at a private residence in Edison, New Jersey. The event was attended by friends, family, and former clients and colleagues from the past 30 years.
